

World War I in Film and Literature

Paper 2

Discuss the experiences of civilians during and after the First World War. How do civilians contribute to the war? What stresses do the labor under? What gap of experience develops between the battlefield and the home front? What are the post war effects of this?